MEETING MINUTES

Dena Jefferson called the meeting to order at 7:32 p.m.

Treasurer's Report: Kelley Houtz: Some of the expenses this past month were for the purchase of the new marimba and payment to Sarris candies. Money was borrowed from the general fund to make the Wildwood deposit. Overall there was $25,000 in expenses. Sub sale profits will be reflected on the February statement. Checkbook balance is $13,436.05. Tim Schultze made a motion to accept the report as presented and Michelle Chambers seconded.

Financial Secretary Report: Holly Zieber: There were a few deposits made in January. February is off to a good start. Tom Castanzo made a motion to accept the report as presented and Deb Hauf seconded.

Recording Secretary's Report: Janice Mountain: The minutes were posted on the website. Michelle Chambers made a motion to approve the minutes and Scott Zieber seconded.

Vice President's Report: Michelle Chambers: No report.

Scott Zieber: No report.

Tom Castanzo: No report.

Student Officer Report: Pres. – Michael Schultze: The first indoor show was cancelled due to weather. The first payment for the Wildwood trip is coming up.

All of the bands have a concert on February 19th. County band rehearsal is all day on February 20 with the concert being on Saturday the 21st.

Chocolate Fest was fun and he thanked everyone that attended.

Band Director's Report: Mr. Carraher: Indoor Guard has their first show at Hempfield on February 21st.

The District Band concert was great. We have 2 students that made it to Regional Band, they are Joey Schrum and Derek Whittle. It will be held 2/11 -14 at East Stroudsburg and they will audition there for All State Band.

All of the Concert Bands have their winter concert on February 19th. Rehearsal will be after school on the 18th. Samantha Millette will conduct a piece as part of her senior project.

Mr. Bitner: Chocolate Fest went very well and he got lots of compliments on the jazz bands performances. He apologized that the 6th period jazz groups set got cut short. The students had a great time eating chocolate and hugging puppies.

We had two students make it for District Jazz Band, they are Nick Gigliotti and Chaz Sapp. We have 3 that made it for Vocal Jazz, they are Corianne Silvers, Leanne Frist, and Sheyi Osenduka.

Jazz I will be participating in the Essentially Ellington competition at Temple on March 3rd.

Jazz Concert will be on March 10th.

OLD BUSINESS

Scrip: Missy Miller: There is an order going in tonight. She encourages more indoor drumline/guard families to participate in the Scrip program to help out with Wildwood trip expenses. Check the Scrip website for specials, sometimes they end a day or two before our orders go in.

Membership: Chris Mayer: She will have a report next month.

Florida Trip: A trip meeting will be scheduled in early March, this will be for anyone that is going on the trip. The parade will be Thursday afternoon and adjudications will be on Friday. Uniform for the parade will be band polo and khaki shorts. There are 191 total going, 170 students, 9 staff members, and 12 chaperones.

Legends of Music: Deb Hauf: District Jazz will be held here at our school on April 10th & 11th. We will be feeding them dinner Friday evening in the cafeteria. We will need volunteers to help with dinner, and help on Saturday with tickets sales and handing out programs. Tickets are $7.

GTP/HERCO: Contact Cheryl Martin at dcmartin2004@aol.com if you are interested in working. Ushers for PIAA wrestling and basketball will be coming up.

Craft Show: Michelle Chambers: We have 211 spaces filled with 55 vendors on the waiting list. We have received $11,330 in checks so far. Volunteer spots should be posted this week.

Indoor Rama: Kelley Houtz: Raffle tickets are available for the TV. Posters are available to be distributed. Volunteer slots are not posted yet, they are waiting for the schedule. We need donations of taco meat, mac & cheese (recipe & pans available, see Kristi Castanzo), and baked goods packaged to sell for $1, also donations of water and soda. We currently have 31 groups signed up. Doors will open at 11:00 a.m. and the show will start at Noon. Program ads are due at the end of February.
